KING KALAKAUA'S MOVEMENTS. He Will Return Home After His Southern California Trip.

San Francisco, Jan. 4 .- King Kalakana and the gentleman who accompanied him on his southern tour, will return to this city on Friday next. It has been rumored that his majesty, very shortly after his arrival here, will leave for Honolula direct. It has been learned from good authority that the United States steamer Charleston has been ordered at once to the dry dock at Mare Island to have her bottom cleaned, and that she is to be immediately afterward put in
